BECOME AN IBT AMBASSADOR

BE AN IBT'S AMBASSADOR

As we continue to build the Education and Outreach Program for 2023 -2024 Academic year, we are looking for dancers who would join us for school visits in 2024.

We are looking to visit public, private, and home-school organizations in our area & community.

An IBT visit to your school offers an abridged 30-45-minute presentation, where students get the wonderful opportunity to interact with dancers from our Preparatory Program, Pre and Professional Division, learn, do a movement with our dancers, ask questions and take pictures that will long last in student's hearts. Being an active part of our community is a beautiful way to connect and share the joy dance brings. It also helps our dancers to learn about empathy & inclusion, to reflect , inspire and be inspired by the diversity and the many possibilities we can build when working together.

Please email me at the outreach program if you would like to join.

THE STORYTELLERS

We welcome the 2023 Nutcracker Season, we are excited to witness once again our dancers's journey through each rehearsal and see them bloom as they become our favorite Nutcracker storytellers.

Get ready to be mesmerized by this year's production immersing ourselves in a story full of magic with cute little mice hiding, courageous drummers and soldiers, toys that become alive and snowflakes who dance in perfect unison.

Congratulations and Happy Season to our Principal Dancers, Soloists and Corps of Ballet at our International Ballet Academy, you are all magical storytellers. Each dancer helps build the story that brings joy to audiences, our families & friends.

Can you imagine what a full Nutcracker Performance will be with no Sugar Plum Fairies, mice, soldiers, fairies, or the flavors of hot chocolate, tea or coffee?

Enjoy, the journey and the story as you continue blooming. Celebrate the season. It's Nutcracker Season!

1. You Pass Along Tradition to the new generation.
2. You Friendship: Long-lasting friendships develop from working together and building the deep respect dancers have for each other and each production.
3. Growth: Each production is an opportunity to work on skills and important aspects for one's artistry
4. Empowerment as individual and as a part of a team, our community and society

Choreographed by Ballet Master, Vera Altunina, IBT's interpretation of The Nutcracker Ballet is packed full of its original European flavor, exquisite hand-made costumes and the anticipated theatrical pageantry everyone should expect! Music by composer Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky, of course.
